Great Homeschool Conventions

<http://www.greathomeschoolconventions.com>

We believe passionately in the God-given right and responsibility of parents to train and educate their children. We are honored to partner with The National Center for Life and Liberty, as we promote and produce homeschool conventions.

Wouldn't it be great if your curriculum needs were in one place? Have you ever wondered where that family found that cool homeschool resource? Would you like to thank an author or creator of some of your curriculum? Be equipped! Great Homeschool Conventions has teamed with an abundance of resources for you. While we are Christians – gratefully and unapologetically so – and whereas this helps to guide how we structure the convention, we do not require that an attendee, speaker or exhibitor “affirm” their agreement to our own Statement of Faith. Similarly, whereas we may not schedule a speaker or approve an exhibitor that is specifically “anti-Christian”—we do have Speakers and Exhibitors that are not specifically “Christian” but that DO provide knowledge, information and/or curriculum that is applicable and valuable for homeschoolers, both Christian and non-Christian alike. Accordingly, you should also note that we do not necessarily endorse everything you may find in the Exhibit Hall or that you may hear in a Seminar or Workshop session. Because this is an education forum, we do not propose to “filter” everything—allowing you to see or hear only what “we” have approved. We believe that you, as parent educators, are very capable of judging and making intelligent decisions for yourself and for your family. Our conventions are designed to help a broad spectrum of homeschoolers and people considering homeschooling. They are not, however, denominational meetings to formulate uniformity of belief and practice.
