Homeschooling High School

Flexible Online Homeschooling High School ProgramThe ultimate in homeschooling flexibility! Parents praise our online high school homeschooling curriculum for its individualized education customized to each student's needs. At regionally accredited James Madison High School, homeschoolers complete high school at their own pace on their terms. Students learn independently using eBooks from highly respected high school textbook publishers. A James Madison High School diploma is preferable to a GED® and paves the way to college entrance, a better career and a great future.James Madison High School6625 The Corners ParkwaySuite 500Norcross, Georgia 30092(800) 349-6861
