Chronicling America: Historic American Newspapers: Announcing Webinar--Double Victory in Black and White

<https://www.loc.gov/item/event-405634/?locId=eacam>

Join us for the webinar "Double Victory in Black and White: What Digitized Historical Newspapers Reveal about the African American Experience of WWII" on Thursday, September 29, 2022 from 4-5:15pm EDT. Drawing on his new book, "Half American: The Epic Story of African Americans Fighting World War II at Home and Abroad" (Viking, October 2022), historian Matthew Delmont explores how Black newspapers led the Double Victory campaign during WWII, to secure victory over fascism abroad and victory over racism at home. Black newspaper reporters told the stories of the vital roles Black troops played and brought the triumphs and tragedies of the war home to Black readers. The Black press raised questions regarding race, democracy, and citizenship that remain relevant eight decades later. After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the webinar. If you encounter problems with your registration, please contact ndnptech@loc.gov. Individuals requiring ADA accommodations are requested to submit a request at least five business days in advance by contacting (202) 707-6362 or ADA@loc.gov.
