Abby Johnson describes God's mercy as "fierce" – that is, His mercy is marked by unrestrained zeal, intensity, and highly determined activity. Abby experienced God's "fierce mercy" after working for eight years as an employee and clinical director for Planned Parenthood. God transformed her life in 2009 when Abby assisted with an ultrasound-guided abortion. She watched in horror as a 13-week baby lost its life to the abortionist. In that moment, the scales fell from Abby's eyes, and she realized the ugly reality of abortion. The post Experiencing God's Mercy After Leaving the Abortion Industry appeared first on Jim Daly.
