Fall Back in Love

<https://jimdaly.focusonthefamily.com/fall-back-in-love/>

When Jean and I first started dating, I was willing to inconvenience myself to show her my interest. I lived in San Diego, and she lived in Orange County. Despite the 90 miles that separated us, I'd often take dinner to her while she was at work. Fast forward to the early years of our marriage, and I couldn't be bothered to run an errand for her down the street. Something had changed. I was easily distracted.
