Yarn Bowl by Mudcrush Pottery

<http://vaagenfamily.blogspot.com/2015/10/yarn-bowl-by-mudcrush-pottery.html>

As part of my "These are a Few of my Favorite Things" series leading up to the Christmas Holiday, I am posting multiple reviews of products, both local and not-so-local!! I will post a link of where you can find these things, as well! ? It's time to get shopping! Mudcrush Pottery has created some of my very favorite and most beautiful pottery pieces! ? If you know me at all, you know that I love to crochet. ? A friend taught me how about 3 years ago, and I haven't stopped every since! HOWEVER, I also have 4 children and 3 indoor pets!! ? It simply doesn't work to just let my yarn skein flop around while crocheting. ? If it's on the couch, somebody picks it up and plays with it. ? If it is on the floor, I will give someone a gift with dog hair woven in (not so pleasant). These yarn bowls have been life savers! ? The little cut out holds the yarn in place perfectly, and there is enough weight to keep the whole skein down. ? She also makes rectangular ones for those of us who don't like to roll our yarn in to a ball! Her pieces are very unique and affordable! You can find this beautiful Mudcrush piece and many more at THIS link! Thank you for coming to Mingle Over Mocha with Anna!
