Friendship For Grown-Ups: What I Missed & Learned Along the Way, by Lisa Welchel Lisa Welchel is a Christian Actress, Author, speaker for Women of Faith, and fellow homeschooling mom. She was the child star "Blair" in Facts of Life. Her experiences, beginning in the filming of Facts of Life, were what began her journey that is described among the pages of Friendships for Grown Ups. As an independent individual most of her life, she had a hard time understanding what real friendship is. Lisa is a bit of an open book. Her no-holds-barred style welcomes you in, and makes you feel like you're talking to a friend. I would recommend this book to anyone who has the "loner" mentality. I have tendencies to need personal space often, and there were many parts of this book I could easily relate to! I received this book free from Thomas Nelson Publishers, a.k.a. "Book Sneeze" as part of their book review bloggers program. I was not required to write a positive review. The opinions I have expressed are my own. I am disclosing this in accordance with the Federal Trade Commission's 16 CFR, Part 255 : "Guides Concerning the Use of Endorsements and Testimonials in Advertising.
