5 Ways to Make Geography Fun for Kids

<https://hiphomeschoolmoms.com/5-ways-to-make-geography-fun-for-kids-2/>

With the internet opening up the world like never before, the need for our kids to understand the world is growing right alongside it. Whether we like it or not, we live in an increasingly global community, so the need to teach our kids geography and world cultures becomes more and more important every day....
