You CAN teach your children a Foreign Language: Part 1

http://www.thehomeschoolmom.com/teacherslounge/articles/you_can_teach_foreign_language.php

This article is the first of a four part series on how to teach a foreign language to your children (even if you don't know the language yourself!). For many children, this age range is the best time to start. Before you spend a lot of money on DVD's, CD's, "language learning systems" and masses of extra flash cards, take some time to think about your child and your goals for the language.
